MOMENT IN THE OUTGOING YEAR

- Pg. 6

The House of Representatives Committee on Ports, Harbours and Waterways recently paid working visits to Port locations on oversight functions.

During the visits, the Chairman of the Committee Honorable Osy Prestige urged all and sundry to contribute most meaningfully in ensuring that the Nigerian Ports comply with International best practices. At Onne Port, Honorable Prestige commended the Port Manager Alhassan Ismaila Abubakar for the enabling environment for the effective collaboration during their visit to the Port.

He thanked the Port Manager for his warm reception and for his promptness and pro-activeness in responding to issues of their concern.

Hon. Ossy also observed that there is a cordial relationship existing between the Port Manager, Terminal Operators and other Stakeholders. He describes this as good synergy with operators to enhance good business performances.

Hon. Ossy stated that the issue of security concern raised by the Port Manager is a recurrent concern already raised in all other Ports. He however promised that his Committee will ensure that the insecurity on waters channels at the Gulf of Guinea, particularly offshore of Bonny, Brass and Yenegoa as raised by the Port Manager is addressed with a view to eradicate attacks on vessels, abductions for ransom, killings and destruction of assets by pirates.

The Port Manager Onne Port Complex, Alhassan Ismaila Abubakar expressed his gratitude along with his Management team for the visit of the House Committee to Onne Port.

From the Editorial Suites

In this December Christmas edition, we bring you educative, informative and entertaining stories just for our teeming readers.
